Summary

I changed my professional sphere. I worked at bank as economist about 5 years, but I realized, that this isn't my calling. I became interested in computer programming at last summer. I decided to learn javascript because it's very common, has syntax that is similar to English language and has wide range of use. And now I'm working as a frontend developer for LLC Oxagile (Belarusian outsource company).

Skills

- Languages: HTML5, CSS, SASS, JavaScript(ES6), Typescript
- Frameworks and libraries: React, Redux, ReactNative, Bootstrap
- Technologies: NodeJS, Websockets, Canvas
- Builders: Webpack
- Databases: MongoDB (base), DynamoDB (base)
- Version control: Git
- Services experience: AWS (base)
- Task tracking: Jira
